Note continued

In Govt. Pro: No. 1698, issued under date the 4th September 1906 the Deputy Commissioners recommendation to drop the question of the mismanagement of the temple by Kotta Munisamiah and to appoint Chintalapalli Venkata muniah and Hema Samiah as new managers ~~of the affairs~~ of the institution, was approved, and the temple lands were directed to be leased out by Govt either by calling for tenders or by auction.

The Deputy Commissioner now reports that the tenders for the lease of the temple lands have been received up to Rs 4 of- her annum but that the Archaks, have, on their own responsibility, leased the lands in September 1906 to Mr Appa Rao, Advocate, for Rs 100/- for 10 years. The Assistant Commissioner proposes that as the Archaks have no power to lease out the village [illegible]

Muzrai Department.

Sir,

With reference to para 3 of Government Order No. 1698, dated 14th September 1906, re the leasing out of the Inam village, Kammagondanahalli, Bangalore Taluk, endowed to Sri Venkataramana-swami temple in the Bangalore City, I have the honor to state that draft as per order

- 886

that the Bangalore Division Officer in his No. 311, dated 5th October 1907, states that tenders have been received upto Rs 410/- per annum, but that the Archaks have in September 1906 leased out the village on their own responsibility for Rs 100/- per annum for a period of 10 years to M/s Appoo Rao Advocate. The highest tender cannot be accepted unless the above transaction is cancelled. The Assistant Commissioner therefore proposes that as the Archaks have no power to lease out the village the contract entered into may be cancelled and the village leased out to the highest bidder. He further proposes the introduction of the Survey and Settlement into the village for the better management thereof. I agree in the recommendation made by the Assistant Commissioner.

2. The entire file of vernacular papers bearing on the subject is herewith forwarded for reference and kind return.
